

Convention Facilities (with Accommodation)

Biwako Grand Hotel Kyo-Ohmi

Biwako Grand Hotel Kyo-Ohmi is home to a variety of differently sized venues, enabling MICE events to be held according to the size and needs of your conference, training, ceremony, or lecture.

A total of 18 rooms (with a maximum capacity of 800 people) and a convention hall are available for smooth and well-equipped meetings to be held in a relaxed atmosphere.

As well, a banquet hall where social gatherings can be held to deepen bonds between participants after your events is available.

The ""Bihada-no-yu"" (meaning ""hot water for beautiful skin"" in English) of the historic Ogoto Hot Spring, which is said to have been opened 1,200 years ago by the great Buddhist priest Saicho who founded Mount Hiei's Enryaku-ji Temple, will also help you recover from the fatigue of your event.
