Lake Biwa Otsu Prince Hotel

Prince Hotels are elegant, easy to use, and always located where your travels need them.

The Lake Biwa Otsu Prince Hotel, located on the shore of Lake Biwa in the Lake Capital of Otsu City, is a 38-story high-rise hotel with 529 guest rooms featuring stunning lake views. The hotel is also home to one of the largest convention halls in Japan, known as "Oumi." The hotel has become a symbol of Otsu in recent times due to its grand appearance against the Lake Biwa landscape.

The concept of the hotel is to be a travel hub where people can interact and experience ""time"" and ""beauty"" in various situations together.

It is only 2 stations (9 minutes) from Kyoto Station to Otsu Station by JR train, and only 10 minutes by free shuttle bus from Otsu Station, making it an ideal location for MICE events.

 From the Facility Representative

One of the largest convention halls in Japan, "Oumi," with a combined area of 2,940m² and 9 rooms, can be efficiently used for multiple purposes all on the same floor.

Banquet halls in the hotel building include the 1,220-square-meter and folding fan shaped "Prince Hall," as well as the "Top of Otsu" banquet room on the top floor of the hotel, approximately 130 meters above ground level. All rooms have a lake view, and the hotel also offers a wide variety of dining options at its restaurants and after MICE events at the nearby Seta Golf Course and Ryuoh Golf Course.
